FARM QUOTAS IN SATURDAY VOTE

GEO. A. THOMAS & SONS DRUG HERE OBSERVING GOLDEN ANNIVERARY

Fifty years ago a new business sign was hung over the sidewalks of Cameron.

One hundred and twenty-five years ago on Upper Saint Martin's Lane in London, England, another sign was pioneering as well. The realtionship of these establishments form an unbroken line of honorable business, a service to humanity.

On Tuesday in the city of Cameron the firm of Geo. A. Thomas & Sons began observance of its fiftieth anniversary. Throughout the coming days of 1939 and extending into 1940, the people of Cameron and Milam county will welcome the happy privilege of extending congratuations to the presonnel of this pioneer business institution.

While no elaborate plans have been made and no celebration is contemplated, the firm has issued an invitation to the people to join in the observance of the golden anniversiay. The store front has been painted in gold and throughout the interior of this, Cameron's most modern drug store, are decorations of gold carrying out in artistic and impressive effect the color scheme of such a period.

During the Christmas holidays and pre-Christmas season, the store is featuring its usual line of merchandise and shoppers will find during this golden anniversary, opportunities they have not enjoyed in many days.

The firm of A. Thomas & Co., in London, England and the family responsibile for this unbroken line of merchandising, gave to Cameron the late Geo. A. Thomas who was born in London, and the father of Monta J. Thomas and Rush A. Thomas, present owners and managers of the busness.

Both Monta Thomas and Rush A. Thomas were born and reared in Cameron and were with their father in this business. They have been actively directing the business since 1902.

He came to America when a young man, settling in New Orleans. Later he moved to Bryan, to enter the drug business, and from that city went to Franklin and later to Waco where he owned a drug store.

The drug store of Geo. A. Thomas & Sons was established in Cameron fifty years ago, being located in a building then standing on the site of the present building housing the Clifton & Triggs Auto Agency.

A diastrous fire swept and destroyed the buildings of the entire block. The ideal of service asserted itself when the late Geo. A. Thomas rented the building now occupied by the store, ordered a stock of merchandise, and opened for business the next morning. The store has continued at its present location.

When the Citizens National Bank built its new home, the building was made modern in every detail and fixtures throughout were selected with the utmost care.

A statement issued to the people on the occasion of the golden anniversary will be printed in both editions of the Cameron Herald and will be read with understanding and appreciation for the high ideals that have governed the progress of this business.

NEW PROGRAM WOULD FURTHER RESTRICT THE PRODUCTION AND SALE OF SOUTHERN CROP

Further curtailment of production of southern cotton together with additional adoption of the Department of Agriculture market methods is a serious threat to both the indepen dence and economic security of Milam county and producing states, according to Mose G. Cox, who has dispatched a letter to Congressman Ed Gossett of Wichita Falls outlining his objections to the plan.

That portion of the letter referring to the cotton situation is considered important because on Saturday, Dec. 9, Milam county farmers will cast their vote on the cotton marketing quota for 1940.

Mr. Cox has made a close study of the situation and his remarks are interesting and timely.

The statement of Mr. Cox follows:

"Already Secretary Wallace, perhaps at the behest of Mordeica Ezekiel, has so severely reduced the cotton acreage that it has forced thousands of our laborers to go upon the relief rolls. The money for cultivating and chopping the cotton and for gathering the larger yields of former years was used by this laboring class in purchasing merchandise from our local stores, which have now lost that source of revenue, and the same holds true as to the large sums formerly spent in the fall for gathering the larger crops. Now Secretary Wallace, Mordecia Ezekiel, et al., are not content with control of the amount to be produced, but next Saturday the farmers are voting upon a "market quota" plan, which will give them the power to refuse to let a supposedly free citizen sell, the products of his land and of his own labor. They will take into consideration all the individual and governmental carry-over and all the estimated production next year, and will themselves estimate the amount of cotton they think can be disposed of for consumption in 1940, and, dividing the estimated number of bales that may be marketed by the sum total of the carry-over and the 1940 production, they will arrive at a given percentage and prevent the American cotton farmer from selling more than that precentage of what he may actually produce in 1940. If the carry-over and the production are estimated to be five times greater than the estimated consumption, then each producer will be denied the right of selling more than one-fifth of the cotton he may actually produce next year and will be forced to either starve or further tie himself up to the government for governmental loans upon his cotton that he cannot sell in open market. If this is not hitching an individual to a strongly centralized Federal Government, and if this is not a step in the direction of the Communistic plan of farmng as now practiced in Russia, then I do not know my oats."

REICH MAY LEND AID AS NEW WAR TURN IS SEEN

German rifles are being used in Finland to kill the soldiers of Joseph Stalin, it became known today when it was revealed that Germany in a surprise development over the Baltic situation, was sending consignments of rifles and other war materials to aid the Finns.

In view of the recent understanding between Germany and Russia regarding Poland, the co-operation of Germany with Finland to oppose Russia was a development from which European capitals evolved the belief that a turning point might soon occur in the war.

The Russian troops had scattered the defenses of the Finns on one front and were making considerable headway although with great losses of life. The Finns continue to make heavy inroads against Soviet air planes and the Finnish government was elated over receipt of some sixty Italian bombers flown across Europe to the little country. England was using air transportation to supply the Finns with war materials.

Continued developments in European capitals indicated that practically all European countries have lined up against Russia, including Nazi Germany.

What is the National Housing Act?

The National Housing Act is the law under which the Federal Housing Administration, commonly known as FHA operates.

FHA does not lend money.

FHA investigates and approves lending institutions and co-operates with them by insuring these lenders against risks on long term low rate loans for Home Building and for Home Repairs, Improvements and Additions.

The two principal parts of the Act that concern individual home builders or owners are called Title 1 and Title 11.

Title 1 covers property improvement and modernization loans and also home loans in the lowest cost class.

Title 11 covers new home loans, up to $16,000, made on property that meets desirable standards of design, location and construction.

CENTRAL AMERICA IS CRADLE OF HISTORY

RED HORDES SWEEPING OVER BALTIC IN BLOOD PATH TO CONQUEST

Soviet Russia's invasion of little Finland by air, land and sea, which came as a shock to the civilized nations of the world Wednesday, continued unabated Friday as women and children were being ruthlessiy bombed and slaughtered in the streets of Helsingfors, the Finnish capital.

Late Thursday night the city was reported in flames. A noon broadcast Friday said that the dead and wounded would reach into the thousands. Ten Russian planes bombed the city Friday morning.

The Finnish government had resigned in a humilitating effort to appeas the wrath of the Russian war gods in their wanton agression against this small an defensless nation. Whether Red legions of Stalin would be halted short of complete annihilation of the Finnish population was a question being debated in the capitals of the world today.

In his press conference in Washington Friday morning, President Roosevelt grew bitter in his denunciation of Russia for its invasion of Finland. The Finnish government notified the American government early Friday that it would make the current payment on its debt to the United States regardless of the Russian invasion. Finland is the only country in Europe that has paid its war debt to the United States. It was firmly believed in Washington Friday that the United States would sever diplomatic relationship with Russia within the next few days if not within hours.

The Pope in Rome released a statement early Friday in which he became almost bitter in an expression of sorrow over the unleashing of the Red hordes on Finland.

In Italy the controlled press severely condemned Russia for its invasion of Finland.

In Germany the press expressed sympathy with Russia in its invasion of Finland.

FINNS DOWN PLANES AND STOP THE SOVIET

White winter had spread its mantle over the tragedy of the Baltic today and the Soviet advance into Finland had virtually come to a standstill.

In four days of fighting Russian losses are said to have been appallingly heavy.

More than sixty tanks have been destroyed and according to late reports approximately 40 Russian bombing planes have been shot down by the Finns.

The Russian soldier, called "Poor Ivan" by the Germans in the last war, is reported in Finland poorly equipped and without adequate clothing to stand the hazards of an Arctic campaign.

Before the Russians began their advance into Finland, the world had been told about the parachute concentration of troops. The Finns were shooting the Russians out of the air much as a Texas hunter would kill a bird on the wing and at no place in Finland has Russia been able to make any headway.

In Washington President Roosevelt was said to be discussing with leaders in Congress possibility of taking strong action against Russia for invasion of Fnland. This action of course, would be merely a slap on the wrist.

Dr. Homer P. Rainey, President of the University of Texas, has analyzed Texas' future possibilities in repeated public address. These statements express his thought:

"The next stage in the progress of Texas lies in the development of our great industrial and commercial possibilities."

"A program of industrial development centers around the manufacture of raw materials into finished products."

"American industry is moving closer to its raw material sources. We in Texas can capitalize on this movement if the opportunity is grasped."

"Our great highway development, coupled with industrial progress, will greatly aid the Texas farmer in his marketing problem."

"The best measure of the importance of an enterprise is the employment it creates and the income it produces."

"Our need for increased employment requires the keenest intelligence in solving the problem. Our boys and girls must be trained in highly efficient schools to meet the growing needs of farm and business."

"Our Universities are dedicated to a program of scientific training and research which will create employment and build industry to use our raw materials at home."

"Repeated failures did not stop our hardy pioneers in the building of our present empire. The same spirit must prevail for a successful future."

The Texas oil industry recognizes the soundness of these broad principles. They underlie present employment and provide for expanded future employment for our Texas people. The vital part oil plays today in putting these principles into actual practice will be portrayed in a series of advertisements to follow in this publication.

Our Golden Anniversary

Fifty years ago the Thomas sign was suspeded above the side walks of Cameron and some of you were welcoming the New Drug Store as it was known at that time.

On this our Golden Anniversary it is with a deep sense of gratitude that we express our appreciation, for some of you—your children and now your grand children are still patrons of this old store.

We have tried to render a service for after all business is a profession of faith. It begins with the faith and good will of those whom it seeks to serve.

Some say that sentiment and business do not go together, with this we do not agree which recalls to our minds the words of Bruce Barton —in that he well expresses our sentiment:

"There is a side of business that the critics do not see. Critics write and talk about business as If it were wholly materialistic, an organized grab bag in which the strongest grab to most.

'They do not know that business is friendship and recreation: that it is the happiest way which men have yet discovered for playing together the game of life."

On this our Golden Anniversary we turn back the pages in our Book of Memories, we bow our heads and tears swell our eyes in rememberance and gratitude to the thousands of loyal customers and friends who have crossed the Great Divide and now lie sleeping in the cities of the dead.

Time has not erased their memories.

May we ask of you our loyal friends that you help us celebrate this our fiftieth year in Cameron. Time marches on.

group, said. "Twenty-five percent of all the oil in the world and forty percent of the oil in America comes from Texas. One hundred and thirty-four counties located throughout the state are now in production with explodation or leasing under headway in all but fourteen counties of the 254.

"Outside competition has forced average well production to such a low figure in Texas today that only by most careful management can our industry survive its fixed overhead costs. If through this institutional advertising program we can stimulate the bringing of other industry into the state, we can help stimulate added employment and incidentally our own industry through the use of more of our products at home.

"Each time we interest other industry in coming to Texas to use our oil products we cut down exportation of our surplus. The new paper mill at Lufkin is an example in point. Though the paper is made of another raw product, timber, it is made possible through the tremendous supply of cheap fuel. Much of our raw product is yet to be processed within the state. Wool and cotton are both examples of such opportunities.

"The oil industry has made tremendous strides in the processing of its crude oil, now refining more than eighty per cent within the state's borders and thereby furnishing employment for many thousands of Texas people.

"The advertising series will endeavor to portray to the public the part the oil industry plays in the economic life of Texas and its contribution to employment, tax revenues, distribution of new wealth created through constant production of oil and the advantage it offers to new industry."

Ends 4th Unsuccessful Attempt to Collect Insurance on Husband

The case of Mrs. Vivian Green of San Antonio vs. Southewestern Life Insurance Company in which Mrs. Green sued the insurance company for payment of a policy on the life of Henry Grady Green, husband of the plaintiff, resulted in favor of the Southwestern Life Insurance Co.

The suit ended the fourth effort on the part of Mrs. Green to collect additional insurance on the life of her husband who died in 1934, near Silver City while driving to Cameron.

The insurance policy provided for payment of $2,000 upon death of the insured and for an additional payment of $2,000 provided the death did not directly or indirectly result wholly or partly from disease or as the consequence of and accident occasioned by the violation of the law.

Mrs. Green maintained her husband met death as result of an accident while the insurance company claims his death was not accidental but the result of a heart attack.

Now is the time to see the Grant Lumber Co. They have the facilities of all types of loans. You can do those needed repairs now and pay later. Is your roof in good shape to protect your home from heavy rains? Is your home painted so the winter weather will not damage the siding. See us today. We have competent and reliable carpenters and painters who are only too pleased to give you estimates at no obligation to you. Just phone 407. Every call given our personal attention.

'BE FRIENDLY OR ELSE' STALIN WARNS TODAY

All Europe was rocked today as Soviet Russia sent a sharp warning to Rumania bluntly telling that small Balkan power that unless Rumania remains friendly in the present controversy with Finland and in the war which England and France are waging against Germany that serious consequences may ensue.

This is the long expected gesture of Stalin in the direction of southeastern Europe and the Balkans. Several days ago Benito Mussolini, Italy's dictator, warned Russia any move to extend Soviet influence into the Balkans would be resisted with force by Italy.

Whether this shocking development of the day indicated that Russia had reason to believe that Rumania was pursuing a policy unfriendly to the Soviets could not be ascertained.

There was widespread belief throughout the world today that war, swift and certain, would soon envelop every country in Europe.

On three successive days the French army on the western front had inflicted sereve losses upon the Germans. Hundreds of German troops are said to have been killed in sharp attacks on the French lines.

Pete Gibbs of Yarrellton was a Cameron business visitor Wednesday.

DELEGATION GOES TO ANSTIN ABOUT HIGHWAY

F. G. Blake, W. F. Paden, Judge J. T. Kemp, Representative Reese Turner and Commissioners R. G. Stidham and B. M. McMillion, were in Austin, Monday, in the interest of Highway 190, from Splawn, on Highway 77, to Hearne. Other points on the road in Milam county and Robertson county were well represented.

It was the contention of those representing the delegations that the Highway commission, in 1934, had agreed to improve this highway and had directed the Counties to secure rights-of-way and the Counties were furnished with field notes and had proceeded to serve these rights-of-way at great expense. There is not a member on the present Highway Commission that was a member at that time and these delegations were assured by the present Highway Commission that they would investigate the facts in the case and let the Counties know later.

Members of the delegations feel their chances are good for future improvement but doubt if immediate improvement can be made because of lack of finances on the part of the Commission.

W. S. Birdwell, Jr., district director NYA, was in Cameron Wednesday morning.

"Build-Up": Way to Ease Women's Pain

Many weak, run-down women are in a vicious circle. Their undernourishment often leads to what is called functional dysmenorrhea and its symptoms—headaches, nervousness, irritability, intermittent cramp-like pains—from which many women suffer. Surest way to break the vicious circle is by building strength and energy, which so many find may be done with the help of CARDUI. It stimulates appetite, aids digestion, and thus helps in this "build-up" of physical resistance. Women also report that, if taken just before and during "the time," CARDUI helps to ease the pain and discomfort of the period.

FANNING-RALEY

Of interest to their many friends, both in Texas and Oklahoma, was the lovely wedding of Miss Alice Virginia Fanning, Cameron, and Leroy W. Raley, Jr., Chandler, Okla. The marriage, uniting two pioneer families of Milam county, was celebrated Thanksgiving evening at the First Baptist Church, Cameron, with Dr. John Wesley Raley, President of Oklahoma Baptist University, Shawnee, and brother of the bridegroom, reading the wedding vows.

The altar, which was banked with ferns and palms, was banked with floor baskets of large white chrysanthemums. Arragements of smaller chrysanthemums were used throughout the church.

Mrs. John W. Raley of Shawnee, was at the piano playing a program of nuptial music as the guests were being seated. Mrs. Raley played Liebestraum No. 3, Liszt, Nocturne in F, Schumann, and accompanied Mrs. W. G. Harsha who sang the bridal solo, The Sweetest Story Ever Told. The traditional Lohengrens Wedding March was used for the processional and Schumann's Traumerie during the ceremony. Mendelssolin's Wedding March was played for the recessional.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Myra Lee Fanning, who wore an afternoon dress of dubonnet crepe with matching hat. Her corsage was of tailsman roses. Entering on the arm of her father, the bride was lovely in a traveling suit of pacific blue with persian lamb trim and black accessories. Her flowers were white rosebuds and lilies of the valley made into a shoulder corsage tied with silver and white ribbons. She wore the necklace which her mother wore in her wedding and carried a handkerchief of point lace and linen sent from panama by Miss Violet Raley.

Frank Raley, Rosebud, attended his brother as best man. Ushers were F. E. Jackson, Cameron, and Messrs. Coleman, Claud and Floyd Raley, brothers of the bridegroom.

Mr. and Mrs. Raley left immediately in their car for a week's honeymoon trip after which they will be at home in Chandler, Oklahoma.

Miss Fanning, the lovely daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Fanning, is a graduate of Yoe High School Cameron. She attended Baylor College and Oklahoma Baptist University, Shawnee, Oklahoma. For six years she was assistant to the County Superintendent of Schools of Milam county.

Mr. Raley, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Raley, Rosebud, is a graduate of Rosebud High School and Baylor University. He attended Eastern Baptist Theological Seminary, Philadelphia two years and received his Master of Theology Degree from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary at Fort Worth, Texas. He was pastor of First Baptist Church, Rush Springs, Oklahoma, for five years and is now pastor of First Baptist Church, Chandler, Oklahoma. He is one of the Directors of the Oklahoma Baptist Convention and is State Vice President of the Baptist Training Union.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Raley, Rosebud; Dr. and Mrs. John Raley and children, Helen and John, Shawnee, Oklahoma; Coleman Raley, Salado; Messrs. Claud and Floyd Raley, Waco; Rev. and Mrs. V. G. Miles and children, Bernia Marie and Arthur Lee, Hillsboro; and Mr. and Mrs. Leo Wilkerson and daughters, Leola and Zora, Austin.

The bride is the daughter of Ed Westbrook of Cameron, is a graduate of Yoe High School and was before her marriage employed in the office of Dr. A. E. Kruse. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. T. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a lovely white wedding gown made of silk lace with lego-mutton sleeves, close fitting waist satin at the neck caught with a bow line and floor length with pleated at each shoulder. The dress was worn over white taffeta. A beautiful bridal veil caught at the back of the bride's head with a crown made of pleated lace and lillies of the valley fell to the floor in folds around the white satin sandals worn by the bride. She carried an arm bouquet of white carnations and baby chrysanthemums. Miss Lucille Seidle, maid of honor, wore a floor length dress of blue chiffon over taffeta with a wide velvet belt tied in a bow in the back. She wore silver sandals, silver flowers in her hair and carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums and fern tied with blue ribbon. Miss Elizabeth Jahn, a friend of the bride and Lorene Reinder, cousin of the groom, were the other attendants. Miss Jahn wore pink taffeta and Miss Reinder wore orchid taffeta. Both dresses were made on the same lines with the new bustle effect. Both wore silver flowers and sandals and corsages of pink and orchid carnations tied with silver ribbon. Alvin Reinder, brother of the groom, was best man and Marvin Seidl, brother of the bride, and Albert Helpert, a friend were groomsmen. At 12:30 a delicious dinner was served to friends and relatives of the young couple. Later in the evening the bride cut the beautiful wedding cake. In a third, you'll discover Essó, the best motor fuel you can buy—and there's no doubt about Esso being superlative! . . . And at this point, ladies and gentlemen, we find ourselves squarely in the middle of the story of our three LEADED gasolines: there's one for every car, every gasoline budget, under the Humble sign. While the building was under construction, classes were conducted in the Fuchs school building and the students were transported to and from their homes by bus.

Suffering Women Welcome "Build-Up"

A simple method is saving many women much pain and discomfort! It is based on the knowledge that women's headaches, nervousness, and cramp-like pain often are symptoms of functional dysmenorrhea due to a weak, run-down, undernourished condition. That so many women find relief from these painful symptoms through the CARDUI "build-up" is easy to explain. By improving the appetite, assisting digestion and assimilation, CARDUI helps to build physical resistance against periodic pain. Thousands of women also report that CARDUI, taken just before and during "the time," helps to ease periodic pain.

Of much interest to friends over a large section of Texas and Oklahoma was the marriage on Thanksgiving night, November 30, of Miss Alice Fanning of Cameron to Mr. Leroy Raley of Chandler, Oklahoma. The ceremony was performed before a lighted altar banked with ferns and white chrysanthemums at First Baptist Church in Cameron with Dr. Jonn Wesley Raley; president of Oklahoma Baptist University, reading the marriage vows. The bride, beautifully dressed in a suit of stone blue trimmed in black karakul and wearing black accessories, entered the church on the arm of her father, W. M. Fanning to be met at the altar by the bridegroom where the marriage ritual was read. Immediately following the ceremony the couple left for a short wedding trip after which they will be at home in Chandler, Oklahoma where Mr. Raley is pastor of the Baptist Church of that city.

MARCH INTO BALTIC IS BRAVELY RESISTED TODAY

Fleeing the Russian invaders, people of Finland are being forced into an exodus costing many lives and property damage resulting in billions.

As the Soviet troops continued to advance into Finnish territory, homes were being burned by families who were gathering up all household goods they could hurriedly transport, fleeing into the interior of Finland or into Norway and Sweden.

Finland today was said to resemble China with its scorched earth.

Nations of the world continued to condemn the Soviet invasion of Finland but there was no liklihood that any strong power would attempt to go to the assistance of Finland due to the impossibility of military attack.

The little country is without alliances of any kind.

There was little war news anywhere in the world today except in the Baltic where on Wednesday the Russians opened hostilities against little Finland.

In reply to President Roosevelt's request that civilian populations be spared air attacks, Molotoff, the Russian prime minister, refused to give any consideration to the American president's plea stating that the Russians had not bombed civilian populations and would not do so. The facts are the Russian premier has uttered a deliberate falsehood, or is misinformed concerning developments in Finland, for already thousands have died from bombs dropped by Red airmen.

Minors Charged With Burglary Released to Parents on Probation

Kenneth Weems and Dawel Talafuse, minors, tried before Judge Graham Gillis in juvenile court here Saturday morning, were released to the custody of their parents on probation until they have reached the age of 21 years.

The two boys, each of whom is 16 years old, were arrested in Gatesville early this week where they had gone after participating in the burglary of a barn on the farm of L. C. Boyd of near Maysfield and taking approximately 450 pounds of cotton seed.

Baptist Meet at Little River Monday

The Milam County Baptist Worker's Conference will meet with the Little River Baptist Church on Monday, December 4, at 10 a. m. for their regular monthly meeting.

Rev. Grady W. Metcalf, pastor of First Baptist Church of Temple, will be the principal speaker for the occasion, delivering the sermon at 11:45.

Among those on the program for the day are Rev. Johnny Cole who will lead the song service; Rev. G. C. Butler, devotional; Rev. John A. McIver, district missionary, report of State Convention; J. C. Mayfield treasurer's report; Rev. E. E. Crawford; Mrs. Floyd Horten; Rev. T. H. Vaughn of Rosebud, who will speak on encampments; Rev. L. E. Strickland of Rockdale.

Lunch will be served by the women of the church at the noon hour and board meetings will be held in the afternoon.

"I Wouldn't Work for Just ANY Old Dairy"

Those RYLANDER people! You might think I was royalty the way they treat me. They're always cleaning my stall and keeping me "fit." And talk about taking precautions! Why they almost drive me frantic with checking the purity of my milk and their scientific dairy equipmen. But I can't deny that I'm proud of myself. When you can be a member of the Rylander herd, you know you're just about the best there is. We know that mothres are proud of us, too, because they insist on Rylander's Milk for their families.
